

Relax & Recharge at Villas Del Mar

August 10, 2011

Guests can experience the ultimate in luxury at Villas Del Mar in Los Cabos, Mexico with the new customizable Viva Los Cabos package available Aug.15-Dec.15, 2011.

Ideal for two couples traveling together, this package includes a minimum 3-night stay in an expansive 2-bedroom, private ocean view resort villa nestled along a two-mile stretch of beach on the Sea of Cortez. Villas feature expansive suites, an open terrace, private pool with spa, full kitchen, balconies and both indoor and outdoor dining areas.

Upon arriving at Villas Del Mar, guests will be welcomed by their personal chef and butler; serving homemade gourmet chips, fresh Guacamole, Pico de Gallo and a pitcher of margaritas. In advance of arrival, Villas Del Mar will stock the kitchen with guest's favorite ingredients including breakfast and lunch fixings, served fresh daily at the residence.

The Viva Los Cabos package blends adventure with relaxation, allowing visitors to create their own vacation. As part of the package, guests can choose to bask in the sun during a half-day cruise featuring a tequila or wine tasting on the private Villas Del Mar 50-foot sailing Catamaran or play a round of golf for four at the 27-hole signature Jack Nicklaus golf course at the Palmilla Golf Club.

Also included is complete access to the exclusive Club Ninety Six—the Villas Del Mar members-only beach club—and the Club Espiritu fitness center. All guests will receive a 25 percent discount for massages.

Priced from $730 pp per night (based on 4-person occupancy). For more information, call (866) 845-5277 or visit delmaresapes.com.
